As of September 29, 2002, 9,421,437 shares of Common Stock were outstanding, and the aggregate market value of the Common Stock (based upon the closing price of these shares on that date) held by persons other than Officers, Directors, and 5% shareholders was approximately $3,078,755.

FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

This annual report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities law. Such statements are based upon management's current expectations, projections, estimates and assumptions. Words such as "expects," "believes," "anticipates" and variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that may cause future results to differ materially from those anticipated. These risks include, among others, general economic conditions, changing competition, the level and pricing of future orders from the Company's customers, the Company's dependence upon third-party suppliers, including some located in foreign countries with unstable political situations, the Company's ability to successfully implement new information technologies, the Company's ability to integrate its acquisitions and new licenses and the Company's ability to implement operational improvements in its acquired businesses.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Report on Form 10-K/A amends and restates in their entirety the following Items of the Annual Report on Form 10-K of Crown Crafts, Inc. (the "Company") for the fiscal year ended March 30, 2003 (the "2003 Form 10-K").

Items 10, 11, 12, and 13 of the 2003 Form 10-K have been amended to provide information which was to be incorporated by reference to the Company's proxy statement to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the 2003 Annual Shareholders' Meeting.

He is also Regent's Professor Emeritus and Robinson Fellow of the Robinson College of Business at Georgia State University and a consulting economist with Morgan Keegan and Co. From 1997 to 2000, he was Regent's Professor of Economics at Georgia State University, and from 1973 to 1997, he was a Professor or Associate Professor in that department. He was also the founder and Director of the Economic Forecasting Center at Georgia State University from 1973 to 2000. He is a member of the Board of Directors of Ruby Tuesday, Inc., Assurance America, TBC Corporation and Regan Holdings, and is also a Trustee of the CIM High Yield Fund.

Dr. James A. Verbrugge is Emeritus Professor of Finance and has been the Director of the Center for Enterprise Risk Management at the University of Georgia since January 2002. From 1976 to 2001, he held the GBA Chair of Banking in the Terry College of Business at the University of Georgia. He is a member of the Board of Directors of eResource Capital Group, Inc. and also serves on the boards of two private companies.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

The executive officers of the Company during the fiscal year ended March 30, 2003 are as follows:

NAME	AGE	POSITION WITH COMPANY
E. Randall Chestnut(1)	55	Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer
Amy Vidrine Samson(2)	42	Vice President and Chief Financial Officer
Nanci Freeman(3)	45	President and Chief Executive Officer, Crown Crafts Infant Products, Inc.

</Table>

(1) Information about the business experience of Mr. Chestnut is set forth under "Directors" above.

(2) Ms. Samson joined the Company on July 23, 2001 as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Before joining the Company, she had served, since 1995, as Vice President of Finance and Operations of Hamco, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

(3) Ms. Freeman joined Red Calliope in 1976 and became President and Chief Executive Officer in 1997. When Red Calliope and Noel Joanna merged in 1999 to become Crown Crafts Infant Products, Inc., Ms. Freeman became President and Chief Executive Officer of the combined company, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

Subject to the terms of applicable employment agreements, each executive officer of the Company is elected or appointed by the board and holds office until such officer's successor is elected or until such officer's death, resignation or removal.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors, executive officers and persons who own more than 10% of the Common Stock of the Company to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of the Common Stock. They are also required to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file with the SEC.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on its review of the copies of such reports furnished to it and written representations that no other reports were required, during the fiscal year ended March 30, 2003, all of the Company's officers, directors and greater than 10% shareholders complied with all applicable Section 16(a) filing requirements.

ITEM 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following table shows the compensation during the fiscal year ended March 30, 2003 and the two immediately preceding fiscal years of the Company's chief executive officer and its other executive officers whose annual salary and bonus exceeded $100,000 (the "Named Executive Officers").

(1) Bonuses for fiscal year 2002 included retention bonuses funded in November 2000 in conjunction with the sale of a division of the Company. The following retention bonus amounts were paid during fiscal 2002 as the executives were required to be employed through specified time periods: Mr.

Chestnut -- $225,000; Ms. Samson -- $10,000 and Ms. Freeman -- $32,000.

(2) At March 30, 2003, Mr. Chestnut, Ms. Samson and Ms. Freeman held 420,000, 100,000 and 150,000 restricted shares of Common Stock, respectively, with a value of $193,000, $46,000 and $69,000, respectively. All of these shares are fully vested. The Company does not expect to pay dividends on these shares.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Mr. Chestnut has a Severance Protection Agreement for a one-year term renewable annually, unless either party notifies the other timely of non-renewal, providing for payment of three times his compensation, acceleration of vesting of stock awards, repurchase by the Company of shares acquired on the exercise of stock options if he so elects, a cash payment sufficient to relieve him of any tax liability resulting from excise taxes on the payments to him, and other benefits if his employment is terminated within 12 months of a Change in Control, as defined in the Severance Protection Agreement, and such termination is without Cause or for Good Reason, as defined in the Severance Protection Agreement.

Mr. Chestnut, Ms. Samson and Ms. Freeman each have an employment agreement through March 31, 2005, in the case of Mr. Chestnut, and through March 31, 2004, in the case of Ms. Samson and Ms. Freeman, which automatically renews on a monthly basis thereafter unless either party to such agreement gives the other party to such agreement one year's advance notice of non-renewal. Each agreement provides for annual salary and performance bonuses, as well as other benefits, including a restricted stock award of 420,000 shares of Common Stock to Mr. Chestnut, 100,000 shares of Common Stock to Ms. Samson and 150,000 shares of Common Stock to Ms. Freeman. If the Company terminates Mr. Chestnut's employment without Cause, as defined in his employment agreement, or Mr. Chestnut terminates his employment for Good Reason, as defined in his employment agreement, then Mr. Chestnut will be entitled to be paid the amounts provided in his Severance Protection Agreement. If the Company terminates the employment of either Ms. Samson or Ms. Freeman without Cause, as defined in their respective employment agreements, or either Ms. Samson or Ms. Freeman terminates her employment for Good Reason, as defined in their respective employment agreements, then Ms. Samson or Ms. Freeman, as the case may be, will be entitled to her compensation for the greater of the remaining term of the agreement or one year. If there is a Change in Control, as defined in each employment agreement, Mr. Chestnut, Ms. Samson and Ms. Freeman may, within 90 days, elect to terminate employment and receive the foregoing benefits. The employment agreements each contain one-year post-employment non-competition provisions and provide for a continuity of compensation during that period if termination of employment was without Cause or for Good Reason.

OPTION EXERCISES AND HOLDINGS

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to stock options held by the Named Executive Officers, at March 30, 2003. No options were granted to or exercised by the Named Executive Officers during fiscal 2003.

<Table>
<Caption>

</Table>

(1) Value is equal to the difference between the March 30, 2003 closing price of the Common Stock and the exercise price, which is equal to the closing price on the date of grant.

DIRECTORS' COMPENSATION

Directors, other than employee directors who are not compensated for their duties as directors, are compensated in two forms: cash and stock options. On July 23, 2001, each director also received an initial grant of 5,000 shares of Common Stock.

Each director is paid an annual cash retainer of $20,000 and committee chairmen are paid an additional $4,500 annual cash retainer. Each director also receives a cash fee of $2,000 for each board meeting attended and for each committee meeting held other than in conjunction with a board meeting. For each committee meeting that is held in conjunction with a board meeting, each committee member receives a cash fee of $1,000.

Each director receives an option grant to purchase 2,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock each year on the day after the Company's annual meeting of shareholders.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

From April 1, 2002 through March 30, 2003, the compensation committee was comprised of Messrs. Nie (Chairman), Fox and Payne. There were no compensation committee interlocks.

Mr. Fox, a director of the Company, is a partner in the firm of Rogers & Hardin LLP, which performed legal services for the Company in fiscal 2003 and is performing legal services for the Company in fiscal 2004 at customary rates.

ITEM 12. SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS

The following table sets forth certain information, based upon publicly filed documents, regarding the beneficial ownership of the Company's Common Stock as of June 30, 2003 by (i) each director of the Company, (ii) the current executive officers of the Company named in the Summary Compensation Table included elsewhere herein, (iii) all officers and directors as a group, and (iv) all persons known to the Company who may be deemed beneficial owners of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock, under the rules of the SEC. An asterisk indicates beneficial ownership of less than one percent. Unless otherwise specified in the footnotes, the shareholder has sole voting and dispositive power over the shares of Common Stock beneficially held.
